W: Hi, Tim. What's up?

M: I'm here for some notebooks. What about you?

W: I'm choosing a card for my sister. Can you help me?

M: Sure. This little bear with a striped ribbon looks very cute.

W: Yeah, but that's a birthday card. I need a thank-you card.

M: Okay, then. Mmm... I think that one would be good. 'Special Thanks' is written on the card.

W: You mean the one with no patterns?

M: No. I think it's too plain. I mean the one with flowers.

W: That looks great! You have an eye for things. I'll take it.

2. 대화를 듣고, 남자의 심경 변화로 가장 적절한 것을 고르세요.

M: Come on, Molly. Look at this.

W: What is it?

M: It's the admission letter from Adams Medical School. I'm very proud of you.

W: Dad, I'm sorry to tell you this, but I'm not going to medical school.

M: You must be kidding, Molly!

W: No, I'm serious. I want to go to a fashion design school in New York instead.

M: You don't know what you're talking about! You're throwing away a good chance.

W: I know what I'm doing, Dad! Please, try to understand me.

M: I don't want to talk about it any more.

3. 다음을 듣고, 무엇에 관한 설명인지 고르세요.

M: Today's libraries are much more than rooms full of books. They have maps, audio books, and even movies. But, if you can't get to a library for various reasons, sometimes one can come to you. It's called a "library on wheels." It looks like a bus and can go almost anywhere. Yet inside, it is just like a library. It has wide doors and passenger lifts, so older and disabled people can easily use it, too.

4. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여자에게 부탁한 일을 고르세요.

M: Long time no see! How was your vacation?

W: I've been at an English camp for two weeks.

M: That sounds interesting! How was it?

W: It was a great chance to learn English. I think it would be good for you, too.

M: I really want to join that kind of an English camp. How did you get information about the camp?

W: Well, I found it on a website.

M: What's the website address?

W: Umm.... www.korea~.(pause) I can't remember the address exactly, but I bookmarked it on my computer.

W: No problem.

W: Yes. I was supposed to get my books at two p.m., but I haven't received them yet.

M: I visited your place at two, but nobody was there.

W: I was at home at that time.

M: Hmm... That's strange. Can I check your address?

W: Sure. 160(one-sixty) Woodland Avenue.

M: Oh, dear. Now I see what happened. My paper says 116(one-sixteen). I'm sorry. I'll be there as soon as possible.

6. 대화를 듣고, 여자가 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르세요.

W: Wow! That sounds wonderful!

M: Thanks, but I don't know how to deliver my idea effectively.

W: How about using pictures? With pictures, people can understand your topic easily.

W: I don't think so. Ten dollars for this kind of repair is the lowest price you'll find in this area.

M: Okay, I see. By the way, do you provide a cleaning service?

W: Sure, it's a three-dollar charge, but if you want it, I'll take one dollar off the total.

W: Anyway, I like the city. By the way, what time is it now?

M: It's a little after twelve. Oh, why don't we call home to see if Brian had lunch?

W: Come on. Our son is seventeen! Here, put on some more suntan lotion.

W: It's 11:30 now. Hmm... there aren't any boats leaving West Harbor now.

M: How about taking a boat leaving at 1:30? Before leaving, we can have a nice lunch around here.

W: But we should come back by three. Do you remember our appointment with Jenny?

M: Oh, I almost forgot. Then we should take an earlier one.

W: Right. We can have some snacks for lunch on the boat.

W: What? Ouch!

M: Rose! Are you okay?

W: I fell on my wrist. I think it's broken.

W: Just a little bit, but it hurts.

M: Hmm... I don't think it's broken.

W: What should I do? It's getting painful.
